Adventures of a life scientist in an incubator

Are you a life science entrepreneur looking for the perfect location to grow your startup? Have you considered commercializing your research, but you're unsure about how to continue your research once leaving your university lab?

A co-working lab spaces (or "incubator") may be just the type of space that you are looking for!

Join iCONM in collaboration with BioLabs for a panel discussion on growing innovative life science start-ups in a co-working facility, supported by a community of fellow life science entrepreneurs. Learn from our panel of experts as they discuss their journey growing their company in an incubator.

Panelists:

- Hiroshi Atsumi, Site Director, iCONM in collaboration with BioLabs
- Akiko Futamura, PhD, President/CEO, Hinge Therapeutics
- Kazuhiko Nonomura, Principal, Remiges Ventures
- Ben Moore, PhD, Director of Research, ParosBio
